

NAME: Dr Graeme Jane ROLE: Field Botanist, Plant Identification and Trainer

WORK HISTORY:

- Consultant in botany and vascular plant identification.
- DOC Nelson, 1987–1998.
- New Zealand Forest Service, 1969–1987 Environmental Forester.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's in Forestry, Oxford University 1969.
- PhD in Botany, Waikato University 1983, Ecology of Kaimai fog forest.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS:

- Plot establishment from 1950s(!) on....
- Established Nelson Botanical Society.
- Active member of Rotorua, Auckland, Wellington, Nelson, Waikato, Otago and Canterbury Botanical Societies.
- Active with the New Zealand Native Orchid Group.
- Hobbies are summer botanising in South Island, and winter botany in North.
- Developing a NZ plant names database in C++ of >5000 species.
- Authoring field guides to ferns, grasses, and Cyperaceae from 1990.
- Provides training and species identification support.